LODGE ROOM NOTES

Happenings in the lodge rooms last night.

I. O. O. F.

The second degree was worked on one candidate at the meeting of Pequot lodge, I. O. O. F. It was decided to pay a return visit to Our Brothers lodge of South Norwalk in the second week in April, on which occasion the first degree will be worked by the local lodge. A social session followed the meeting.

I. O. R. M.

The debate on the question of the annexation of Stratford and Fairfield to Bridgeport, to be given by Konknapotansuh Tribe, I. O. R. M., was postponed until the next meeting.

O. U. A. M.

Harmony Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., initiated one new member and completed arrangements for the annual roll call. An invitation was issued to Bridgeport Council to visit them on the occasion of the roll call. Hot clam chowder will be served at the social session which will follow.

W. O. W.

Six new members were initiated and three applications received at the meeting of John C. Tuttle Chapter, W. O. W. An informal discussion of the scope of the investigation soon to be made by the local courts into the conduct of the camp affairs by some of the officers, followed the meeting.

C. O. F. OF A.

Seventy-five applications were received at the meeting of Lucetta Warner Circle, C. O. F. of A., at their meeting in Foresters' hall, thus breaking all records of the order in Bridgeport for the number of applicants at one time. At the next meeting a class of forty-four will be initiated.

D. OF ST. G.

Martha Washington lodge, D. of St. G., perfected plans for the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the lodge at the next meeting on March 15. It is expected that some of the grand officers will be present on the occasion.

KING'S THROAT IN BAD SHAPE.

(Special from United Press.)
London, Feb. 17.—King Edward's throat is in bad shape to-day as a result of his speech at yesterday's opening of Parliament. His cold has settled in his throat and it is badly inflamed. His physicians have ordered him to cut down his speaking and to indulge only in brief conversations.

KNOX STAYS; CABINET FULL

Judge Willis Van Devanter to Be Secretary of Treasury.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Mr. Taft made it known yesterday that Senator Knox would serve as Secretary of State in his Cabinet. It also became known that Willis Van Devanter, now United States Judge for the Eighth Circuit had been selected as Secretary of the Treasury. While Judge Van Devanter's judicial office has a life tenure it is understood that he is willing to resign in order to enter the Cabinet, although his preference was for the Attorney-Generalship.

This selection completes the slate of Mr. Taft's Cabinet and unless there should be some changes not now expected the official advisers of the next President will be:

Secretary of State—Philander C. Knox of Pennsylvania.
Secretary of the Treasury—Willis Van Devanter of Wyoming.
Secretary of War—Jacob M. Dickinson of Tennessee.
Attorney-General—George W. Wick-ersham of New York.
Postmaster-General—Frank H. Hitchcock of Massachusetts.
Secretary of the Navy—George Von L. Meyer of Massachusetts.
Secretary of the Interior—Richard A. Ballinger of Washington.
Secretary of Agriculture—James Wilson of Iowa.
Secretary of Commerce and Labor—Charles Nagel of Missouri.

KIAMIL PASHA FAILS TO PUBLISH DEFENSE

(Special from United Press.)
Constantinople, Feb. 17.—Instead of publishing in to-day's papers his defense against the charges of the Young Turks, Former Grand Vizier Kiamil Pasha said he would wait until public opinion had calmed down. His failure to make his promised statement has injured his standing greatly as the Young Turks are charging him with being unable to refute the accusation that he was plotting to re-establish despotism.
Hilmi Pasha, the new Grand Vizier, says he will do everything in his power to bring about accord between Turkey and Austria and between Turkey and Bulgaria.

A Terrible Crime.
It is a crime to neglect your health this treacherous weather. You should keep your body thoroughly renovated and perfectly free from congestion; the circulation should be perfect by taking at least one Turkish bath a week at the Hotel Atlas, always open. Fairfield avenue and Broad street.

Coal Buying Made Easy.
Some people seem to have the idea that buying coal is more or less like buying a cat in a bag—that you are taking a chance. Well—its not provided you pick the place where you send your order the place to send it, i. e. to the Naugatuck Valley Ice Co., handy down town office, 154 Fairfield avenue.

Schwaben Ball.
Schwaben Benefit Society wish us to announce their 23d annual grand masque ball at Eagles' hall, Friday, Feb. 19, to their many friends. The committee have completed all arrangements and nothing has been left undone to make it pleasant for them. The hall has been turned into the hands of Mr. Abercrombie who will decorate it in an elaborate style. Arrangements have also been made to give the many maskers plenty of room on the dance floor and the balcony will be free to watch the pretty and comical ones. Music will be furnished by the society's orchestra with 24 numbers of latest music in a handsome program. The floor committee will be 17 men in Prince Charles I of England costumes of four different colors. Prof. George Kacovsky has drilled them for some time and stated it would be the best ever seen in this city before. The floor committee will be led by J. J. Ruess at 9 p. m. sharp. Be sure not to miss it. Admission $1 a person. Committee reserve all rights. See adv.
